WILL RETURN A VERDICT FRIDAY

Mayor Black Will Report Finding in Preliminary Hearing of Case of State vs. Crosby.

AT TEN TOMORROW MORNING

Action of Prosecutor in Regard to Second Charge is Indefinite as Yet.

Mayor B. A. Black will return a decision in the preliminary hearing of the case of the State against Ed Crosby, the former trustee, who is charged with forging the names of three workmen and fraudulently receiving $252, in mayor's court tomorrow morning at ten o'clock. He will either dismiss the whole proceedings or bind the defendant over to the circuit court. The prosecutor, John C. Cheney in his final speech yesterday afternoon, when the hearing was held, instructed the court that if he was reasonably certain that the defendant was guilty of the charges made in the affidavit, he should bind him over to the circuit court. In case the mayor believes the defendant absolutely guiltless of the charges preferred against him by the field examiners, he will be compelled to dismiss the whole proceedings.

It is not known just what action will be taken by the State in case the verdict is in either direction. It was the intention to try both of the cases, that in which it is charged that Crosby forged the name of Thomas Hughes and the other in which it is alleged that Crosby forged the name of W. F. Jackson and Theodore Jarvis, yesterday, but at the close of the examination in the Hughes case, the other was postponed until a finding was had in the first one.

It is the belief of Charles D. Sutton, field examiner, who was here yesterday as a State witness in the case, that if the Hughes case is bound over to the circuit court, the other case will be waived and will be sent to the circuit court to be thrashed out there. In case the case is dismissed by the court, it is the belief that the other one will be tried before the mayor. The general consensus of opinion is that the case against the former trustee is not very strong, as was shown by the evidence introduced by the State yesterday.

Charles D. Sutton, the field examiner, who, together with Edward P. Brennan, examined the Crosby report and filed the affidavits against him, addressed Mr. Crosby yesterday after the hearing. He told the former trustee that personally, he was very sorry that the action had ever been taken and hoped that he would be freed of the charge. But he added that it was a part of his duty to assist all that he could in the prosecution of such cases.

The State was represented yesterday by John C. Cheney, prosecutor of the sixteenth judicial district, and the counsel for the defendant was George Young and John Joyce of this city and Reuben Conner of Connersville.

IS ADMITTED TO THE BAR

Eugene Miller Granted Right to Practice Law.

Eugene C. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Miller of North Morgan street was admitted to the bar today. Mr. Miller was graduated from Indiana University in 1908 and has had one year in law in Harvard University this year and will receive his degree in law in two years.

ENGAGE IN FIST FIGHT

Said that Homer Residents Had a Small Argument.

Word reached this city yesterday of a fistie encounter at Homer last Sunday night between Fred Johnson and Leonard Snyder. Reports say that Snyder taunted Johnson until his victim became provoked. The former is the village blacksmith while Johnson is a farm hand. It is said that the belligerents will plead guilty to the charge of disorderly conduct in the court of Justice James Smart at Manila.

JONES "CLEANS UP" AT FT. WAYNE RACES

Miss Two Out of Three Events on the Program With Alecyfras and Lady Winwood.

ROAN MARE MAKES FAST MILE

Harrie Jones, the local horseman, literally "cleaned up" at the Fort Wayne races yesterday, when he won two out of the three races on the program. He took first money with Lady Winwood in the 2:17 pace and the same position in the free-for-all pace with Alecyfras, 2:03 1/2.

Lady Winwood is the sorrel mare owned by John Frazier, which has been successful against every opponent she has had this season. She has won every race in which she has entered this year, her most notable victory being the winning of the 2:18 pace at the State fair in Indianapolis last week. She won in straight heats yesterday, the time being 2:04 1/2, 2:10 and 2:11 1/4.

Alecyfras, 2:03 1/2, the roan mare for whom local horse fanciers have predicted great things, and who lowered her record several seconds when she won a heat at the State fair, won the free-for-all pace in four heats, giving way to King Cole in the third heat and finishing second. The time was 2:04 1/2, 2:05, 2:05 1/4 and 2:04 3/4. She lowered the half mile track record at the fair ground this year by going the mile in 2:09 flat.

SAILOR BOY HAS BEEN VISITING HERE

Carl Kenner, Who Has Been Guest of His Father, Has Touched Principal Ports in West.

GOES TO AUSTRALIA NEXT

Carl Kenner, the sailor boy, who has spent a few days here with his father, Frank Kenner, who is employed on the work on the new bank building, was born and reared in Rushville and left here only a few years ago.

Carl has been a sailor on the good ship, South Dakota, for two years and a half and enjoys the service hugely. He has sailed the western waters constantly and he has touched the principal ports of the western world, and relates many experiences of the sailor's life.

The South Dakota carries 800 sailors and has forty-eight officers. The young man is home on a ten days' furlough and leaves Saturday to join his comrades at the Frisco port where they will set sail with the fleet for Australia. The fleet is composed of eight warships, all of about equal dimensions. The South Dakota is 550 feet in length with 76 feet beams.

HIT BY LOCAL CAR AND ESCAPES

Fred W. Claffey, Living Near New Palestine, Sustains Injuries in Accident on This Division.

LEG AMPUTATION NECESSARY

Car Strikes Horse Driven by Victim and Instantly Kills Animal—His Escape Miraculous.

Accidents on two interurban lines last night, both of which occurred near Indianapolis, resulted in the death of the victim in one case and the serious injury of the victim in the other, says the Indianapolis Star.

A soldier, practically identified as Private William J. Hengen, Company F, Twenty-sixth United States Infantry, was struck and instantly killed last night at 8:15 o'clock near Shadeland crossing, a short distance this side of Fort Benjamin Harrison by an inbound Muncie car on the Indiana Union traction line.

Fred W. Claffey, 45 years-old, living near New Palestine, Ind., was thrown from a covered farm wagon five miles out on the Rushville division of the Indianapolis & Cincinnati line at 7:15 o'clock last night, when an inbound express car, No. 403, struck the horse attached to the wagon and instantly killed the animal. Claffey sustained injuries to the right leg which necessitated amputation last night at St. Vincent's hospital after he was brought to Indianapolis by the crew of the express car.

According to the crew of the Rushville car, Motorman Clyde Clarkson, 817 East Twenty-third street, and Conductor Harry Strickler of Rushville, the car was going at the rate of twenty miles an hour at the time it struck Claffey's rig. Motorman Clarkson said last night that he whistled for the road on which Claffey was driving, and before he reached the crossing whistled again for a curve just the other side of the road. Clarkson said the car was but ten feet away from the wagon when he saw it and that the car struck the vehicle full force.

The shock as the car struck the body of the horse, standing partly on the track, bent and broke the big headlight of the express. Pieces of flying glass from a front window, broken by the impact, sailed over the head of Conductor Strickler, who was sitting on the right side of the car, near the front windows. It was miraculous, according to the crew, that Claffey was not killed instantly.

CLOVER SEED COMING IN

Quality Said to be Very Fine and Yield Good.

Clover seed which is coming into the local market is bringing the farmers $7 per bushel for the best quality, which is about the highest price recorded for new seed here in several years. The quality is said by the dealers to be very fine and the yield in some fields is heavy, being almost four bushels, while two bushel yields are very common, and the latter is said to be very good for Indiana fields.

HAVE A WOMAN IN BLACK.

The "woman in black" made her appearance in the city of Shelbyville last night between 8 and 9 o'clock. She visited several houses, peeping through windows, running on porches and frightened the women residents in Tompkins street until they had to call the police.

NEW PASTOR IS COMING SUNDAY

The Rev. J. B. Meacham Will Take up His Charge at the First Presbyterian Church.

COMES HERE FROM RIPLEY, O.

Is a Native of North Carolina and Was Graduated From Davidson College and Princeton.

The Rev. J. B. Meacham, the new pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will begin his ministry next Sunday. At the morning service his theme will be "Paul, a Spendthrift." The subject of the evening discourse will be "The Confessions of a Minister."

The Rev. Meacham is a native of North Carolina. His age is thirty-five years. He was graduated from

REV. JOHN B. MEACHAM.

Davidson college, North Carolina, in 1901, with degree of A. B., and from Princeton Theological Seminary in 1904. This same year he was called to the pastorate of the Southern Presbyterian church at Mt. Sterling, Ky., his first charge. At the end of three years a union of the Southern and Northern churches was effected and both pastors were retained as co-pastors of the United church until each received a call elsewhere.

The Rev. Mr. Meacham accepted a call from the Presbyterian church at Ripley, O., where he has been for the past three years. The local church has been without a pastor since the resignation of the Rev. J. F. Cowling, which took effect last April.

GOES BACK TO HOME OF HER CHILDHOOD

Mrs. Clara Adams, wife of Missing St. Paul Baker, Goes to Mother's Home in Indianapolis.

HUSBAND IS STILL AT LARGE

Mrs. Clara Adams, wife of Walter L. Adams, the absconding St. Paul baker, who deserted home and business Monday, says the Greensburg News, was busily engaged yesterday in packing her household effects, which she is to remove to Indianapolis. Mrs. Adams, the deserted wife, is going back to the home of her youth, the place where several years ago she left with Adams, a trusting bride.

She like other St. Paul citizens, knows no more concerning Adams. It is presumed that he went toward a large city as he has often been a visitor in Indianapolis, and it is known that he liked that city. The same theory that he went away on account of a general decline in business, still prevails.

Japan imported nearly 170 tons of lead pencils from Germany last year.

WILL SPEAK IN DECATUR

Congressman Barnard Will Transfer Political Activity From Shelby.

Congressman Barnard, who is conducting a speaking campaign in Shelby county this week, will transfer his political activities to Decatur county next week. He will make several speeches. Senator Albert J. Beveridge will open his campaign in the Sixth district Thursday, September 29. He will speak at Greensburg. Congressman Barnard will also speak at that meeting.

CONGRESSMAN IS WELL RECEIVED

W. O. Barnard, Republican Candidate For Representative Addresses Large Audience.

IS CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

Congressman W. O. Barnard of New Castle was greeted by a large audience in the Wrenick hall at Morristown Tuesday night, when he made the opening speech of the present campaign to the people of Hanover township, says the Shelbyville Republican. He discussed at length the political issues of the day and gave it as his opinion that the present campaign would end with an overwhelming victory for the Republican party. Judge Barnard was given hearty cheers throughout his speech. Last evening he spoke at Marietta and tonight he will be heard in Flat Rock.

Judge Barnard in an interview with the editor of the Republican yesterday morning said that he will carry the Republican counties in this district by a combined majority over Gray greater than his majority over Kuhn and that Gray's majority over him in the Democratic counties will not be as large as Kuhn's was.

SENDS REGARDS IN FORM OF CIGARS

Business Manager of the Oskaloosa, Iowa, Herald, Remembers Rushville.

RECEIVED "TIP" FROM HERE

Charles S. Walling, business manager of the Oskaloosa, Iowa, Daily and Weekly Herald, has sent his regards to the Rushville Retail Merchants' Association in the form of a small box of ten cent cigars. It was that town which took a "tip" from Rushville on the bargain day plan in the form of a "Big Wednesday." They have tried it out there and are very enthusiastic over the results. The idea was first suggested there by J. B. Doll, a former restaurant man here, who read of the activity of the local merchants along that line in the Daily Republican. The cigars were received by Jet Parker, who is chairman of the committee, who has had charge of the "Big Wednesday" arrangements. He passed them out today as long as they lasted. The general opinion was expressed that the cigars were "almost as good" as the Rushville cigars.

VETERAN DEAD.

James A. Veatch, age sixty-five, Republican candidate for county recorder, farmer and civil war veteran, is dead at his home near Greenfield. He leaves a widow and family.

TO ARRANGE FOR LIGHTS TONIGHT

Believed That Plans Will be Made at Merchants' Meeting to Install Sidewalk Features.

IS MEETING WITH APPROVAL

Water and Light Committee of City Council, Which is Interested Party to Meet With Them.

It is highly probable that something definite will be done in regard to the lighting of the down-town streets with decorative and artistic sidewalk lights at the regular meeting of the Rushville Retail Merchants' Association, which will be held in the court house this evening at eight o'clock. It is urged that a large and representative crowd of business men be in attendance at that time so that the subject can be thoroughly thrashed out and a definite plan be arranged for the improvement. The water and light committee of the city council will meet in conjunction with the merchants to have a voice in the affair.

It is the general consensus of opinion among the business men that the improvement will be put through this evening. The plan of lighting the down-town streets in a manner something similar to the plan which has just been established in Indianapolis has seemed to meet with popular approval among the business men and among others who are not vitally interested in the question. It is the general belief that the improvement would be a great benefit to the business district of the city and would give it a metropolitan and more up-to-date appearance.

According to the petition filed before the council by the merchants on Tuesday night lights are to be installed only in Main and Second streets for the present, as the work must be done at once before the brick streets are laid, so that the cost may be greatly reduced. The business men offered at the council meeting to purchase the poles and all necessary fixtures if the city would attend to the installation and furnish the electricity for lighting them.

WILL BEGIN DUTIES SOON

New Gwynneville Bank Will be Opened in a Short Time.

Edgar Stiers of Manila will move from that place in a few days to Gwynneville, where he has accepted a position as cashier of the new bank in that town. The bank will be opened for business soon, the building being almost completed. It will be operated by Frank Mull, and will have a capital stock of $25,000.

PAWPAWS ARE HERE.

Pawpaws—luscious and delicious when ripe and worse than green apples when green—have made their appearance on the local market. The pawpaw crop is said to be good this year and there will be plenty of the fruit on the market a little later.

New Jersey maintains its high standard of public schools at an average cost of about 20 cents a day a pupil.

A PARTY BOLT

Democrats in Rural Indiana Done With Taggartism.

[Special Correspondence.]

Indianapolis, Sept. 22.—It seems that none of the politicians, on either side of the question in Indiana realize fully how far the rural revolt against Taggartism has gone. Thinking men and close observers who were in mind the famous campaign of 1904, when W. J. Bryan "spoke" regularly and his followers voted for Roosevelt and against Parker, have reasoned that Mr. Bryan's friends might feel pretty middling independent this year. In view of the fact that Thomas Taggart was the Parker national chairman, and that the Bryan voters helped to swamp the Parker boat, with Taggart steering, it has been supposed that something like the Parker upheaval might happen again to Taggart this year in Indiana. Especially does this view hold good when it is recalled that Mr. Bryan holds against Taggart the fact that Indiana elected a Democratic governor but went Republican on the national ticket, and against Mr. Bryan, in 1908. But with all the speculation about the Bryan vote, it has not fully dawned on the observers hereabouts what real damage Taggart did to the Democratic party cause when he forced into the Democratic state platform a liquor plank drawn by the brewing interests, for the repeal of existing temperance legislation.

Now the rural Democrats are admirers of W. J. Bryan. They also stand fast for the maintenance of existing temperance laws. Mr. Bryan is with them on this local issue and on other larger issues. Mr. Bryan is with the country Democrats against Taggart, bossism, and against the special interests. In his own definition of insurgency, Mr. Bryan describes his own attitude, that of "revolt against the special interests within the party."

This takes us down to a little episode, or indication of the trend, which is startling in what it develops of actual conditions. In Parke county Dudley Straughn, a Democrat, cards the Rockville Tribune, a Democratic newspaper, to give warning against Taggartism, and to inform candidates that they must repudiate the state platform or be downed at the polls, by anti-Taggart Democrats. Speaking of a Taggart man announced as a candidate for the legislature, Mr. Straughn says: "We will not only vote against him, but will work until the last ballot is cast on election day to defeat him." Mr. Straughn goes on to say there are more than 500 anti-Taggart Democrats in Parke county, under pledge to oppose the schemes of the Taggart crowd at the polls and at the coming session of the legislature. Parke county is in the Fifth district, where lives Crawford Fairbanks, chief patron of Taggart.

The Democratic bosses may heed the warning of Dudley Straughn in Parke county and listen to the outcry of Democrats like him in other parts of the state. But if Taggart refuses to give heed, as he has done in the past, it is likely there will be some fireworks in the Democratic front yard November 8, and that some of the prominent and noisy pieces will be volunteered by the anti-Taggart and pro-Bryan element, without regard to the set program. Republicans are in a position of decided advantage this year, and are ready to welcome independent voters from all directions. The policy of the party has been such as to commend it strongly to the men who condemn Taggartism. At the same time the fair play and progressive tendencies of the Republican leaders enable square dealers from all parties to rally under the Republican flag on national as well as on local issues.

FREEDOM FOR LIFE CONVICT

On Condition He Submit to Gruesome Test.

STATE VETERINARY'S PROJECT

Proposition Has Been Made to Governor to Grant Pardon to Life Convict Who Would Offer Himself a Sacrifice to Science and Submit to Tests Which Would Determine Transmissibility of Bovine Tuberculosis.

Muncie, Ind., Sept. 22.—Dr. W. E. Coover, state veterinarian, has asked Governor Marshall to take into consideration the liberation of a life convict from the northern prison on condition that he submit to a test to prove whether or not tuberculosis can be transmitted from a cow to a human being.

The matter was brought up here and the plan advanced when the state veterinarian and Dr. Boor were engaged in the inspection of a large herd of diseased cattle, four of which it was found necessary to kill because of tuberculosis. It was declared that if it is possible for human beings to contract the disease from cattle, many were placed in danger by drinking the milk of these cows. Later, it is understood by Dr. Boor, Dr. Coover took the matter up with Governor Marshall. The governor is said to have agreed as to the value of such an experiment, but did not indicate at the time a strong willingness to stand responsible for the use of a state ward. It was proposed that the governor either parole or pardon absolutely the "lifer" who would make the sacrifice.

It has long been a question among scientists as to whether it is possible for a human being to contract tuberculosis from a tuberculous cow, either by drinking the milk from such a cow, by eating meat taken from an infected animal, or otherwise; and the only reason they are not positive on this point is because of the lack of a human being who will consent to be experimented upon.

WASTED NO TIME

Marion Divorcee Goes From Court Room to Marriage License Window.

Marion, Ind., Sept. 22.—Denying positively to her lawyer that she had any intention of marrying again, and saying that if she could only be freed from her husband she would never want another, Mrs. Gertrude Opal Bess, aged twenty-one, went directly from the Grant circuit court room after obtaining a decree of divorce from Harry Bess of Tipton county, to the marriage license clerk, where a license was issued for her marriage to Abram O. Crumley of Culbertson, Mont. Crumley was an interested spectator at the trial. He admitted to the license clerk that the decision in the divorce case was to determine whether he went back to his farm in Montana a bachelor or accompanied by a wife.

Good Way to Use Hyomei For Catarrh.

Besides breathing through the inhaler a few times a day, many catarrh sufferers write that they find inhaling HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-me) from a bowl of steaming water each night before retiring is a great aid in curing tubercular cases. Try it; it's very simple; gives quick relief and makes you breathe easier.

Fill a bowl half full of boiling water; pour into the water a teaspoonful of HYOMEI, cover head and bowl with a towel, and breathe through nose and mouth the pleasant, medicated, antiseptic and healing vapor that arises.

This method relieves that stuffiness at once, and makes your head feel fine.

You can get a bottle of HYOMEI at druggists everywhere or at Johnson's drug store for only 50 cents. Ask for extra bottle HYOMEI Inhaler.

But bear in mind that a HYOMEI outfit which includes inhaler and bottle of HYOMEI costs $1.00.

But, as stated before, if you already own an inhaler, a bottle of HYOMEI costs but 50 cents.

Hyomei is guaranteed by Johnson's drug store and druggists everywhere to cure catarrh, sore throat, coughs, colds, asthma and croup or money back. Try it on that generous basis.

WOMAN'S HAIR

Johnson's Drug Store knows of a Preparation That Makes Hair Fascinating.

Parisian Sage is the ideal hair tonic and beautiful of the present time.

It is compounded on the most advanced scientific principles, and nothing on the market today can compare with it.

It accomplishes so much more than the ordinary tonics, and does it so quickly that users are astonished. Parisian Sage kills the dandruff germs and eradicates dandruff in two weeks, or money back.

Parisian Sage stops falling hair; itching of the scalp and splitting hairs or money back.

Since its introduction into America it has become a prime favorite with women of refinement.

Parisian Sage gives a fascinating lustre to women's hair and makes it beautiful. It makes the hair grow luxuriantly; it is the daintiest and most refreshing hair dressing that science has produced, and has not a particle of grease or stickiness in it.

A large bottle of Parisian Sage costs but 50 cents at Johnson's Drug Store and druggists everywhere. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.

A Reliable Medicine—Not a Narcotic.

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe Mich., says Foley's Honey and Tar saved her little boy's life. She writes: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." Facts for Weak Women

Nine-tenths of all the sickness of women is due to some derangement or disease of the organs distinctly feminine. Such sickness can be cured—is cured every day by

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

It Makes Weak Women Strong, Sick Women Well.

It acts directly on the organs affected and is at the same time a general restorative tonic for the whole system. It cures female complaint right in the privacy of home. It makes unnecessary the disagreeable questioning, examinations and local treatment so universally insisted upon by doctors, and so abhorrent to every modest woman.

We shall not particularize here as to the symptoms of those peculiar affections incident to women, but those wanting full information as to their symptoms and means of positive cure are referred to the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser—1008 pages, newly revised and up-to-date Edition, sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only; or, in cloth binding for 31 stamps.

H. O. Forge is a candidate for Congress in Minnesota, B'George.

The winner of the airship bomb dropping contest seems to be the state of Maine.

With Gaynor, Harmon, Wilson, and Folk the Democratic presidential timber lot is getting beyond the sproutland stage of growth.

Vice-President's Sherman's difficulty in getting elected to the Saratoga convention was said to be due to fear lest he overwork himself after his idle life in the vice-president's chair.

Congressman Tawney of Minnesota, who was reported to have been defeated by the insurgent element in the Republican party, says that his defeat was brought about by the Democrats, whose candidate had no opposition. Under the primary laws of Minnesota they were enabled to cross over the party lines and aid the insurgent candidate. Everywhere the Democrats are more favorably inclined toward an insurgent Republican than a straight-out orthodox Republican. There is a reason. Are you wise?

No voter should overlook, when he comes to record his vote for Congressman this fall, that the election of a Democratic House will mean the election of Champ Clark of Missouri as speaker. This is the same Mr. Clark who once announced on the floor of the House that if he had the power he would tear down the Custom House in every American port. Mr. Underwood of Alabama, who is set down for the chairmanship of the Ways and Means committee on the Democratic slate, is similarly disposed. The election of a Democratic House would inevitably mean a tariff bill that would strike terror into the heart of every producing industry in America, and create a confusion the like of which the country has never known. Does the country want to take such chances?

Uncle Joe Cannon, in accepting his twentieth nomination as a representative to Congress, hurled defiance at the insurgents and the Democrats, and he made it very clear that he is going to continue to stand pat. In mentioning the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, Mr. Cannon said this law needs no defense. That it is in keeping with the policy of the protection which the Republican party has maintained is the correct revenue policy ever since the election of Abraham Lincoln; in fact, it is in harmony with the very first revenue legislation of the first congress under the administration of Washington. Touching the insurgent movement, Mr. Cannon said, "My notion about progress is that it should be a movement forward, not simply a loud noise about the necessity for the movement, nor an extravagant promise to accelerate the movement if given control of the machine."

She is a striking girl, say the gossip mongers and sure enough on the third strike she made a home run.

When your efforts to treat a man "on the square" have proved to be all in vain and the "offended one" feels that you have trampled on his toes, then, there's nothing to express the littleness to which a human being can descend, is there?

The New Castle Courier says that the water pressure at Rushville is so low that they can't wash anything but their feet. We dislike very much to agree with the editor of the above-mentioned paper, but we beg to differ with him for there are several people who have taken a bath every day for the past week.

Can you beat that for sanitary conditions?

What Our Neighbors Are Talking About

TO HAVE VEHICLE TAX.

(New Castle Times.)

The city council will meet as a committee of the whole Friday night and will adjust the rates to be charged for vehicle licenses. The ordinance as originally prepared is not entirely satisfactory and it is expected that the rates will be adjusted so as to be more uniform. It is probable that persons under twelve years of age will not be taxed for bicycles.

HAS MAD STONE.

(Shelbyville Democrat.)

Mort Crisler of near St. Paul, has a mad stone which he purchased from an Indian in Wichita, Kansas. The mad stone was used by Indians to draw the poison from a snake bite and was a very useful article. It was also used to cure a mad dog bite. The stone has a great magnetic power and when used was placed against the sore and would stick in that position until all the poison was out of the injured membrane, at which time it would come loose and drop off. This fact can be assured by placing the stone against the tongue, and if left in that position for two minutes would take the skin off with it when removed. It is valued very highly by Mr. Crisler as they are very scarce in this country.

"BELLING" ENDS IN FIGHT.

(Columbus Republican.)

Newly married couples do not always take kindly to the old-fashioned custom of the charivari—better known as "shivaree." At least this deduction would be supposed judging from a report from Jackson township, where there came near being blood spilled a few nights ago.

According to the story the newlyweds had gone to their new home when a gang of boys appeared with tin pans, horns, etc., and began making night hideous. Mr. Newlywed took down the trusty shotgun and opened fire. The result was a stampede and a free-for-all fight, so the report says. According to the information from the seat of war, one was seriously injured, but there were a number of broken heads.

NEW SCHOOL FEATURE.

(New Castle Courier.)

A novel feature is to be inaugurated in the public schools in Cambridge City. The innovation is in the form of a school savings bank and is copied from similar institutions now being operated in some of the schools of Michigan, Iowa and other states. The object is to encourage the pupils, from the youngest to the eldest, both boys and girls, to save what money they chance to earn during their spare moments. It is contended that the training of the young schoolboy or girl to save small amounts and the elements of novelty in the small business transaction is calculated to stimulate a desire to become thrifty and to enter business.

The teachers are to act as receivers for the depositors and the money in turn is to be deposited in banking institutions, paying a small interest.

TRAVEL IN COVERED WAGON.

(Richmond Item.)

Leroy Heater and Dale Barnum, two well known young men of this city, left today on a 2500 mile journey to southern Arizona in a covered wagon. Two rifles, two revolvers, fishing tackle and cooking utensils composed the camping outfit. The two men will be dressed in the typical western costumes, which will no doubt create much comment throughout the country that they will traverse.

They will follow the national road to St. Louis and from that point will go south along the Mississippi river for 500 miles and the west for about 1100 miles to southern Arizona. The two will here look up some land and if it is what they want they will remain there and if not they will go west until they strike the right place. A team of strong young horses, each weighing about 1400 pounds pull the wagon, which is of the double-deck type, being fitted with bins for the storage of food, grain and clothing. The wagon is covered with the heaviest grade of canvas, and is absolutely waterproof, being painted with glue and white lead.

Heater has made similar jaunts before and is no novice at the rough and ready style of travel.

Educational Note.

Most of the young men in the penitentiary are learning useful trades, and when they are released they will be fitted for useful work. Most of the young men who are at liberty are learning to be stenographers or fourth-rate lawyers. Let us send our sons to the penitentiary that they may be fitted for the battle of life—Emporia Gazette.

AMUSEMENTS

Every lover of good fiction is well acquainted with "Thelma" by reason of the fact that they have read it carefully. The story as told in the novel will be portrayed on the screen at the Vaudet theater this evening when the film, "Thelma" will be shown. Thelma, it will be remembered, is a simple Norwegian maiden, living alone with her father in the "Land of the Midnight Sun." While on a visit to her mother's grave, that parent having died early, Thelma meets a distinguished young Englishman, who is touring Norway. He woos and wins the simple maiden and sails back to England with her. Lady Clara, a wicked and designing woman, who loves Thelma's husband, by convincing proof, leads the Norwegian miss to believe that her husband loves her no longer. She returns to her native home to see her father before he breathes his last and attends to the last sad rites of burial, which consist of sending the body out on the sea in a burning ship. The rather unexpected climax to the interesting story is a fitting ending. A new illustrated song will be sung.

"Jean and the Calico Doll" is the title of the Vitagraph drama which will be shown at the Palace theater tonight. "Jean," a collie dog, is the hero of the story. The father of the house leaves a large number of bank notes on the table, steps out for a few minutes and returns to find that they have disappeared. He accuses his son of the theft, who in turn is angered and leaves home. In the meantime, the little daughter has carried the bank notes to the back yard and made doll dresses out of them, the dog taking an active part in the playing. She returns in a short time with the doll dresses and is grieved to learn that her dearly beloved brother had left home. She starts out on the hunt of him and is lost and hurt when she falls down a steep embankment. The dog is able to let the parents know that the child is lost and a search is started. The climax is a pleasing one. A new illustrated song will be sung.

The Star Grand offers a Lubin drama tonight entitled "The Healing Faith." Earl Robertson will sing a new song hit entitled "Curly Head."

BEGIN WINTER AMUSEMENT.

Hope, Bartholomew county, people have begun their fall and winter amusement of finding pearls in oysters. Mottis George was eating oysters at a restaurant when he bit something hard. He examined the substance in his mouth and found it was a pearl. Last winter Hope people thought the day was unusually long and cold when one of their number did not find a pearl in an oyster.

FEW DAYS LEFT.

The time for hunting squirrels is about over and there are only a few more days left when it is lawful to shoot the bushy-tails. For this reason hunters are spending the days in the woods and taking advantage of the time left. After the first of the month it will be unlawful to kill squirrels, and there are but eight days left in which to enjoy the sport.

CLARK'S PURITY FLOUR will save you trouble in baking.

The GOOSE GIRL

By HAROLD MacGRATH

Copyright, 1909, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

"A fine stroke, nephew; a bold stroke!" Prince Ludwig laid his hand upon the king's shoulder with rare affection.

"If you accept her without further proof I, her father, can do no less." And the duke led her over to the king, gravely joining their hands.

"Gretchen!" murmured the king. "I do not know how to act like a princess."

"I shall teach you." Gretchen laid her head on his breast. She was very tired and much bewildered.

The duke paced the length of the cabinet several times. No one interrupted his meditation. Back and forth, one hand hanging to the opposite shoulder, the other folding over his chin. Then he paused with abruptness.

"Your majesty," said the grand duke, "I regret that your father is not alive to accept my apologies for so basely misjudging him. Arnsberg, nothing that I can do will restore these wasted years. But I offer you the portfolio."

"I am only a broken man, your highness—too old."

"It is my will."

"As for you," said the duke to the gypsy, "go, and if you ever step this side of the frontier again you will be shot out of hand." He stopped again in front of Grumbach. "I promised to have you shot in the morning. That promise holds. But a train leaves for Paris a little after midnight. My advice is for you not to miss it."

"And my father, your highness?" said Hildegarde bravely.

"Herbeck, your estates are confiscated; your name is struck from the civic and military lists. Have you any ready funds?"

"A little, your highness."

"Enough to take you forever out of this part of the world?"

"Yes, your highness."

"You do not ask to be forgiven, and I like that. You have, perhaps, three

It never took Carmichael long to make up his mind definitely. He found his old friend the cabman in the Platz, and they drove like mad to the consulate. An hour here sufficed to close his diplomatic career and seal it hermetically. The clerk, however, would go on like Tennyson's brook, forever and forever. Next he went to the residence of his banker in the Konigsstrasse and got together all his available funds.

Eleven o'clock found Carmichael in his rooms at the Grand hotel, feverishly packing his trunk and bag. Paris! He would go also even if they passed on to the remote ends of the world.

The train stood waiting in the gloomy Bahnhof. The guards patrolled the platform. Presently three men came out of the station door. Two were officers. The third, Colonel von Wallenstein, was in civilian dress. He was sullen and depressed.

Said one of the officers: "And it is the express command of General Duetz that you will return here under the pain of death. Is that explicit?"

"It is." The colonel got into his compartment and slammed the door viciously.

In the next compartment sat Grumbach. He was smoking his faithful pipe. He was without content. This was far more satisfactory than standing up before the firing line, and, besides, he had made history in Ehrenstein that night. They would not forget the name of Breunmer right away. To America with a clean slate and a reposeful conscience—it was more than he had any reasonable right to expect. Tekla! He laughed sardonically. She was no doubt sound asleep by this time, and the end of the chapter would never be written for her. What fools these young men a-courting were! War and famine and pestilence—did these not always follow at the heels of women?

As the station master's bell rang the door opened and a man jumped in. He tossed his bag into the corner and plumped down in the seat. "Captain!" "You, Hans?" "Yes, Hans, are you going?" "I am weary of Dreisberg, so I am taking a little vacation."

"For how long?" "Suspiciously."

"Oh, for ever so long!" evasively.

Hans said no more. He was full of wisdom. He had an idea. The fleeing chance and his daughter were on the train, and he was certain that his friend Carmichael knew it.

By the aid of certain small bribes on the train and in Paris Carmichael gathered bit by bit that the destination of the woman he loved was America. But never once did he set eyes upon her till she and her father mounted the gangplank to the vessel which was to carry them across the wide Atlantic. The change in Herbeck was pitiable. His face had aged twenty years in these sixty odd hours. His

THOS. W. LYTLE'S SUCCESS

Thos. W. Lytle, the enterprising druggist rather than await ordinary methods of introductions, urged the Dr. Howard Co. to secure a quick sale for their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia by offering the regular 50c. bottle at half-price.

In addition to selling a 50 cent bottle of Dr. Howard's specific for 25 cents, Thos. W. Lytle has so much faith in the remedy that he will refund the money to anyone whom it does not cure.

When your head aches, your stomach does not digest food easily and naturally when there is constipation, speaks before the eyes, tired feeling, giddiness, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, heart burn, sour stomach, roaring or ringing in the ears, melancholy and liver troubles Dr. Howard's specific will cure. Sent postpaid on receipt of price 50 cents.

AN UP-TO-DATE DRUGGIST

It is surprising how many old-fashioned remedies are being used, which goes to show that it is hard to improve some of our grandmothers' old, time-tried remedies. For instance, for keeping the hair dark, soft and glossy, nothing equaling our grandmothers' "sage tea" has ever been discovered. Although, by the addition of sulphur and other ingredients, this old-fashioned brew has been made more effective as a scalp tonic and color restorer. Nowadays when our hair comes out or gets faded or gray, instead of going to the garden or garret for herbs and making the "tea" ourselves, we simply go to the nearest drug store and ask for a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. This preparation is sold by all leading druggists for 50 cents and $1 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

For sale and recommended by Hargrove & Mullin.

Instant Relief for Sore Feet

Sore Feet, Tender Feet and Swollen Feet Cured Every Time. TIZ Makes Sore Feet Well No Matter What Ails Them.

Policemen all over the world use TIZ. Policemen stand on their feet all day and know what sore, tender, swollen feet really mean. They use TIZ because TIZ cures their feet right up. It keeps feet in perfect condition. Read what this policeman has to say: "I was surprised and delighted with TIZ for tender feet. I hardly know how to thank you enough for it. It's superior to powders or plasters. I can keep my feet in perfect condition. Believe in my earnest gratitude for TIZ. I am a policeman and keep on my feet all day."—Emzy Harrell, Austin, Texas.

You never tried anything like TIZ before for your feet. It is different from anything ever before sold.

TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous excretions which bring on soreness of the feet, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet for tender feet.

You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain and you'll forget about your corns, bunions and callouses. You'll feel like a new person. TIZ is for sale at all druggists at 35c. per box, or it will be sent you direct if you wish from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is today the best known medicine in use for the relief and cure of bowel complaints. It cures griping, diarrhoea, dysentery, and should be taken at the first unnatural looseness of the bowels. It is equally valuable for children and adults. It always cures. Sold by All Dealers.

clothes, the same he had worn that ever memorable night, hung loosely about his gaunt frame, and there was a vacancy in his eyes which was eloquent of mental collapse. Carmichael abided his time.

A French newspaper contained a full account of Herbeck's coup and his subsequent flight. It also recounted the excitement of the following day, the appearance of Gretchen on the steps of the palace and the great shouting of the people as they acclaimed her the queen of Jugendheim.

The second day out Carmichael's first opportunity came. He discovered Herbeck and his daughter leaning against the rail. He watched them uneasily, wondering how he might approach without startling her. At last he keyed up his courage.

"Good morning, your highness," he stammered, and inwardly cursed his stupidity.

At the sound of his voice she turned, and there was no mistaking the gladness in her eyes.

"Mr. Carmichael!" "Yes, I was surprised to learn that you were taking the same boat as myself."

How clumsy he was, she thought. For she had known his every move since the train drew out of Dreisberg. "Father, here is our friend, Herr Carmichael."

"Carmichael?" said Herbeck slowly.

"Ah, yes. Good morning."

And Carmichael instantly comprehended that his name recalled nothing to the other man's remembrance.

"You are returning to America?" she asked.

"For good, perhaps. To tell the truth, I am away, deserted my post, though technically I have already resigned. But America has been calling me for some days. You have never been to sea before?"

"No; it is all marvelous and strange to me."

"Let us walk, my child," said Herbeck.

"You will excuse me, Mr. Carmichael?" she said. Never more the rides in the fair mornings; never more the beautiful gardens, the music, the galloping of soldiers who drew their sabers whenever they passed her. Never more any of these things.

"Can I be of any assistance?" he said in an undertone.

"No," sadly.

The days, more or less monotonous, went past. Sometimes he saw her alone on deck, but only for a little while. Her father was slowly improving, but with this improvement came the natural desire for seclusion. So he came on deck only at night.

The night on which the vessel bore into the moist, warm air of the gulf stream was full of moonshine, of smooth, phosphorescent billows. Herbeck had gone below. The girl leaned over the rail, alone and lonely. And Carmichael, seeing her, could no longer still the desire in his heart. He came up to her.

"See!" she exclaimed, pointing to the little eddies of foam speeding along the hull. "Do you know what they remind me of? Mermaids' fingers grasping and clutching at the boat as if to drag it down below."

How beautiful she was with the frost of moonlight on her hair!

"You must not talk like that," he admonished.

"I am very unhappy."

"And when you say that you make me so too."

"Why?" She had spoken the word at last.

"Do you remember the night you dropped your fan?" leaning so closely toward her that his arm pressed against hers.

"I remember."

"You put that word then. In honor I dared not answer. You were a princess! I was only a soldier of fortune. But now that you are in trouble, now that you have need of me, I may answer. I may tell you now why."

Why I have thrown ambition and future to the winds, why I am here at your side tonight. Need I tell you? Do you not know, and have you not known? Am I cruel to speak of love in the moment of your great affliction? Well, I must be cruel. I love you faithfully and loyally, now and hereafter, through this sad day into happier ones. I ask nothing for this love I offer. I ask only that I may use it in your service, in good times or bad."

"Ask what you will," she whispered.

"I am happy now!"

THE END.

For your hot weather baking use CLARK'S PURITY FLOUR.

"Can be depended upon" is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means that it never fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take and equally valuable for children and adults. Sold by All Dealers.

KINGSLAND DEATH LIST IS GROWING

Wreck Victims May Number Fifty.

THIRTY-NINE KILLED

Many Others So Seriously Injured They Will Die.

DISASTER WAS APPALLING

Two Crowded Trolley Cars Dash Together Full Tilt.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Sept. 22.—The wreck which yesterday afternoon killed thirty-nine persons and seriously injured twenty more, was the most disastrous traction car wreck that has marked interurban traffic since the system was established. A southbound limited and northbound local car on the Wabash Valley line collided near Kingsland, south of this city, on a short curve. Many of the bodies were so mangled that identification was rendered slow and in some cases impossible. Hardly any of the passengers in the two cars escaped injury, but the less seriously hurt gave what assistance they could, and in a few moments sixteen bodies, horribly mutilated, were carried to the roadside and laid along the track. Others were so pinioned in the debris that they could not be reached till wrecking cars arrived on the scene. The northbound car was loaded with people coming to the county fair here, and among them were many women and children.

The thirty-six identified dead are: William Beer, night patrolman; L. Bird; Lloyd Brown, newspaper man; W. E. Bowman; William Burgan, real estate dealer; Mrs. William Burgan; H. D. Cook, grocer; William Corkwell, motorman; Ernest Crouse; Miss Falk; Miss Mary Folk; L. S. Justis, general manager Bluffton; Geneva & Celina Traction line; Harold Nelson; Seymour Robinson, Democratic candidate for county auditor; Miss Pearl Saylor; Pearl Taylor; Ralph Walker and Oscar Zimmer, all of Bluffton; Howard Dougherty, Huntington, Ind.; R. F. Folk, Washington, Ind.; R. J. Falk, Byron, O.; Jesse Huffman, Warren county, Indiana; J. E. Hyde, Portland, Ind.; Mrs. Lola King, William King, Warren, Ind.; Charles Eber, Uniondale, Ind.; George Smothers, hardware dealer, Warren; Lloyd Stram, Uniondale, telephone operator; Amos Stucky, Vera Cruz, Ind.; Jacob Swartz, Uniondale, Ind.; F. R. Tan, Warren; D. W. Thompson, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Silas Thomas, Miss Bertha Triplet, John W. Triplet and B. Winters, of Warren.

What led to the accident is not known, but it is supposed that there was a misunderstanding of orders. The car carrying the people to the fair was an extra, and it is thought that its position on the road was not definitely known, and the limited, running on its own time, was not apprised of its approach. The curve where the wreck occurred is one of the shortest on the Wabash Valley line, and there was only an instant after the local car was sighted before the crash came. Even the motormen on the two cars had not time to jump.

The scenes following the wreck were peculiarly pathetic, as mothers and fathers saw the mangled forms of children taken from the wreckage and a husband saw a wife or a wife a husband taken out so mangled that identification could be made only from the clothing. Physicians and nurses were rushed to the scene of the wreck from this city and other places on the line, and many of the injured are now in hospitals. Some of them died before medical attention could be given, and two died while being conveyed to hospitals.

That the cars were running at a very fast rate is demonstrated by a view of the wrecked cars after they had run into each other. The iron and wood of one could not be distinguished from the other, so tangled was the mass, and in this was a struggling, shrieking mass of humanity, praying, calling for help and pleading for relief from their misery. There were four men in charge of the two cars, two conductors and two motormen, and of these three are dead, and the fourth fatally injured.

Although the wreck occurred about noon, it was about 4 o'clock when the last body was taken out. Owing to the delay in attending the injured, several died from loss of blood which could have been prevented had the survivors not been so greatly appalled as to be incapable of rendering assistance.

Of the thirty-six identified dead, eighteen were from Bluffton and many of them were among the most wealthy class. They were going to see the races at the Fort Wayne fair, and just as the two cars met many of them were singing comic songs and cracking jokes. There were a number of young people in the northbound car, and they had been in a specially hilarious mood from the time the car left Bluffton.

Fair; probably unsettled Friday.

There were two physicians in the cars at the time of the wreck. One of them escaped injury, and with the other, who had himself been painfully hurt, rendered first aid to those who survived the shock of the collision.

Relief cars were hurried from this city and persons went from Bluffton in autos. Many of the dead already had been removed from the debris of the splintered cars, and the gruesome work of taking out the mangled bodies of those in the farther recesses of the wreckage was begun by the company's wrecking crews.

One of the survivors says that both cars were tearing along at full speed when they came within sight of each other on the curve, and there was no time to check their onward plunge. They came together with a splintering crash, and then arose shrieks of those who were not killed in the impact. Help from the nearby residents was rendered to such as could be removed from the wreck, but it seemed a long time until skillful ministrations of surgeons equipped for emergencies was provided for the injured.

When a relief car arrived at Kingsland the physicians found more work for the coroner and undertakers than for themselves. The dead and dying were lying in the fields and woods nearby, and little could be done for most of the injured, as they seemed to be beyond medical aid. The wood and iron work of the cars were in a tangled mass and the bodies of some of the victims were twisted and mangled out of recognition in the debris. It is impossible to say how many of the twenty seriously injured will die, but physicians hold out hope for several of them.

SPREADING RAILS CAUSED DISASTER

Fast Train Plunges Into River at Conant, O.

Lima, O., Sept. 22.—Two passengers were killed and a score injured, several probably fatally, when the baggage car and day coaches of an east-bound Erie train—the Chicago-New York fast line—plunged down an embankment and into the Auglaize river at Conant, ten miles west of Lima, last evening. Spreading rails caused the wreck. The engine broke loose from the baggage car and the Pullmans also stayed on the tracks. Two unidentified bodies of passengers have been taken to Spencer, O., and nineteen injured have been removed to that place. The probably fatally injured are John B. Robbins, Concordia, Kan.; Mrs. S. Stoler, Denver, Col.; Mrs. Julia Ferrall, Buffalo, N. Y., and Mrs. James Cone, Manistee, Mich.

BURNED TO DEATH

Two Trainmen Caught in Rear-End Collision Near Hammond.

Hammond, Ind., Sept. 22.—George Workup, aged twenty-eight, of Traverse City, Mich., was burned to a crisp and Alfred Davidson, aged thirty, of Benton Harbor, Mich., was fatally injured in a freight wreck near here. Workup was a brakeman and Davidson a conductor.

The accident happened during a fog so dense that objects could not be seen fifty feet away. An extra freight train on the Pere Marquette railway stopped for the block signal at Calumet Park, four miles west of the city. Unable to see on account of the fog, the engineer of another freight, running at high speed, crashed into the rear end of the Pere Marquette train, tearing through the caboose, wrecking a number of cars and ripping up the tracks. The two victims, Workup and Davidson, were in the caboose at the time of the accident. They were buried in the wreckage, which caught fire from the engine.

Will Get Along Without Them.
Newburgh, N. Y., Sept. 22.—For the first time in twenty years the Republicans of the First assembly district of Orange county have failed to send to the state convention ex-Governor Odell and Thomas W. Bradley, who were looked upon as necessary factors in the conduct of every convention.

MRS. STORER HAS NOT FORGOTTEN

She Returns to Old Charge Against T. R.

QUOTES ARCHBISHOP IRELAND

In Letter to Springfield Republican
Mrs. Bellamy Storer Revives Famous Controversy Which Shook Two Continents. Declaring That "It is Time People Should Know What Manner of Man Is Theodore Roosevelt."

Springfield, Mass., Sept. 22.—The Republican prints today a letter from Mrs. Bellamy Storer written in France on Sept. 6, reviewing the controversy between the Storers and Roosevelt concerning the former president's alleged authorization of the former ambassador to Austria to visit Pope Pius X. and ask him as a personal favor to the president of the United States to make Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul a cardinal.

Letters written by the archbishop in 1903 and 1904, hitherto unpublished, are quoted by Mrs. Storer to show that at repeated interviews in the White House between the archbishop and Roosevelt, the president acknowledged that he had commissioned Mr. Storer to act as his personal envoy at the vatican in behalf of the archbishop. Mr. Roosevelt has hitherto publicly denied that Mr. Storer was so authorized.

Mrs. Storer includes still another letter written by Mr. Roosevelt just after the presidential election in 1896, in which the colonel asked Mr. Storer to see President-elect McKinley and urge him to appoint Roosevelt assistant secretary of the navy. This last letter seems to refute a recent assertion that Mr. Roosevelt never sought a public office until his presidential campaign in 1904.

Mrs. Storer's letter to the Republican concludes as follows: "I write this statement of facts because it is time that people in Europe and America should know what manner of man is Theodore Roosevelt and how much his vociferation for 'honesty and a square deal' really mean. He is a dangerous influence and the truth alone can overcome his power—as it can overcome all evil."

"I write this statement also in order to prove that Mr. Roosevelt's request to Pope Pius X. was not made at the solicitation of Archbishop Ireland, but first of all from the ex-president himself, after the commission was given to Mr. Storer. The truth should be known in justice to Archbishop Ireland."

GOT THE MAJORITY

Sherman Not So Badly Beaten in His Own County, After All.

Utica, N. Y., Sept. 22.—The nine Onondaga county delegates who will support Theodore Roosevelt for temporary chairman of the Republican state convention against Vice President Sherman were selected and instructed yesterday afternoon at the Second assembly district convention held in the village of Whitesboro. These nine delegates represent the main fruits of the fight of the progressives against the old guard in Tuesday's primaries. The other fourteen delegates from the First and Third districts of the county were captured by the Sherman forces as shown by the complete returns.

Reserved His Defense.

London, Sept. 22.—At the close of the police court proceedings, Dr. Hawley H. Crippen and Ethel Clara Le Neve were committed for trial charged with the murder of the doctor's wife, Belle Elmore. Solicitor Newton reserved his defense for the trial proper.

TAWNEY ENTERTAINS NO SERIOUS REGRETS

Would Rather Be Right Than Win On Misrepresentation.

St. Paul, Sept. 22.—Insurgency, rampant in Minnesota Tuesday at the primaries, compassed the downfall of the most radical standpatter in the state, James A. Tawney of the First district, and nominated a practically unknown man, Sydney Anderson, of Lanesboro, for congress, in place of the man who had served eighteen years in the house. Tawney said: "The cause of my defeat may be summed up in one sentence—the use of a man's personal popularity to give a color of truth to misrepresentations."

"The measure which Mr. Roosevelt attacked in his speech at the conservation congress in St. Paul was one that was designed to prevent the improper use of the public money and was passed by both houses of congress unanimously. I believe my course in regard to it was right, and I had rather be beaten for doing right than win a victory based on misrepresentation."

Among the very interesting events of the social season was the announcement luncheon given at one o'clock today by Mrs. Willard Amos of North Perkins street for her daughter, Miss Mary Amos.

The luncheon was in honor of the engagement of Miss Amos to Lawrence Root, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Root of Piqua, Ohio, who formerly lived here.

The table appointments were exquisite, being all in yellow and white, the bridal colors, and the room was decorated in yellow dahlias and smilax. From the centerpiece were loops of yellow ribbon to which were attached two hearts, bearing the names of Miss Amos and Mr. Root on one and announcing the date of the wedding, October 19, on the other.

Just at the close of the luncheon a telegram was received from Mr. Root to Mrs. Amos, which announced the engagement to the guests.

Miss Amos has been prominent among her friends and has occupied a high social position in Rushville. She was a student in DePauw university and is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma fraternity.
